Business Volunteers Unlimited (BVU) surveyed the nonprofit community of Northeast Ohio about the impact of COVID-19. The results below reflect 75 respondents from across the region. More information about this survey and the resources available to nonprofits can be found at www.BVUvolunteers.org.

68% of nonprofit boards have assisted during the crisis.

89% of nonprofits cannot currently deliver on their organization’s full mission.

24% of nonprofit organizations have begun terminations or furloughs.

73% of nonprofit organizations have begun terminations or furloughs.

27% of nonprofit organizations have begun terminations or furloughs.

78% said their organization would look differently one year from now.

27% of nonprofit organizations have begun terminations or furloughs.

72% have cut programs or services.

GALA CANCELLATION

80% of nonprofits have lost revenue.

11% of nonprofits can still deliver full mission.

67% have canceled major fundraising events.

20% have applied for PPP/SBA.

18% have applied for PPP/SBA.

Survey respondent breakdown by annual budget:

- $500K - $1M: 19
- $1M - $5M: 18
- $5M - $20M: 17
- $20M+: 17

Survey timeframe:

- March 31
- April 17

COVID-19 Impact on Nonprofits

Business Volunteers Unlimited engages businesses and nonprofits to work together to strengthen the Northeast Ohio community. Information about working with BVU during the COVID-19 crisis can be found at www.BVU-volunteers.org or by calling 216.736.7711.